

Truly Epic

Jesus Christ and the power of an indestructible life

There are plenty of things being described as “epic” these days. For the record, none of them really are. For something to be truly epic it must transcend the normal. It must be beyond the ordinary. It must astound, surprise, or cause us to catch our breath. To be epic is to be heroic, majestic, or impressively great.

Jesus Christ is all of that and more. And it is a good thing because, whether we fully grasp it or not, we are in need of one who is an epic Saviour. An epic God. One who radiates, “the power of an indestructible life” (Hebrews 7:16). That’s epic!

In our weakness, we need him because our lives are characterized with epic failures of all kinds. In Hebrews we will find one who “endured the cross”—the greatest failure of all time—and who now sits “at the right hand of the throne of God”—the greatest victory of all time.

In him we too can live a truly epic life.
