

BLESSED IS THE ONE

REVELATION 1:1-8 // TODD DUGARD
MARCH 27, 2022

I am promised the eternal blessings of God if I am attentive to his Word (1:1-3), adoring of his Son (1:4-5a, 8), assured of his love (1:5b), accepting of his gospel (1:5c-6), awaiting his coming (1:7).

GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What are some things about the future you would like to know?
2. How does your desire to know the future relate to your excitement about studying the Revelation?
3. How do you keep the idea of adoring Christ from becoming cliché in your life?
4. Do you believe Jesus loves you even as you sin? What does Jesus accomplish in our lives through love? (Revelation 1:5-6)

5. The message of Revelation is no different than any other the book of the bible. It has a Gospel purpose. How could current events or personal struggles be reconsidered in light of everyone's deep need for Jesus?

6. What do you think God could change about you as you attempt to apply the encouragement from Revelation to your life?

7. Scholars hold several views about what Revelation discloses about the future. If you are studying this book with other believers, how do you plan to respond if they hold to a different interpretation than you currently have?
